FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fuse Dance Nationals & Grand National Cheer Championships sign next 5 years to Northern Kentucky Convention Center

COVINGTON (July 6, 2017) – The Cincinnati USA Sports Commission is proud to announce the Northern Kentucky Convention Center will be host to the Fuse Dance Nationals & Grand National Cheer Championships over President's Day weekend the next five years beginning in 2018. This event will feature cheer and dance participants and their families from all over the US.

USA Sports Production is an industry leader in the design, organization and production of gymnastics (all disciplines) and cheer & dance competitions across the United States. Champions Cup Series Cheer & Dance events are all about the competition. By combining event expertise with high standards, it is their goal to provide a fun, first class, contemporary competition where all participants can share in a great competition experience. All OPEN Classics (State), Challenges (Regional) and Championships (National) competitions with no qualification needed to participate. Competition commemorative gift to all participants. All teams and team members will participate in an Olympic style awards ceremony. All teams will receive a team trophy and banner and all participants will receive a medal on the awards stand. Where Champions are made . . . at a Champions Cup Series national competition.

"Northern Kentucky Convention Center is an excellent location to host this new event. All of our hotels, restaurants and attractions will look forward to welcoming these competitors to Northern Kentucky," said Eric Summe, President & CEO of meetNKY.

"We are pleased to host this new youth national event in Northern Kentucky with our great partner, meetNKY. We know that these athletes will have a top-notch event produced by USA Sports Productions and the guests will enjoy themselves while they are in our area", said Leslie Spencer, Cincinnati USA Sports Commission's Executive Director.

"We are excited to bring the event to the Northern Kentucky Convention Center. We have a great relationship with the Cincinnati USA Sports Commission and the Northern Kentucky Convention Center. They are great partners and extremely important to the success of our competition," said Linda Barclay, President, USA Sports Production.
