

22nd International Summit on Violence, Abuse & Trauma
Building Peace by Linking Research, Practice,
Advocacy & Policy to End Violence & Abuse

PS4: AVA - Integrating Trauma-Resiliency Awareness & Expertise into Health & Human Services

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2017 | 8:00AM-12:00PM / 1:00PM-5:00PM

Fees: $110 Early Registration by July 24th | $130 by Sept. 14th | $150 after Sept. 14th & onsite

Hyatt Regency La Jolla at Aventine

3777 La Jolla Village Dr, San Diego, CA 92122

Dave Corwin, MD; Vincent Felitti, MD; Machel Thompson, MSW, PhD; Kara Patin, MSW; Denyse Olson-Dorff, PsyD; Vicki Bodendorfer, MD; Victor Vieth, JD; & William Cosgrove, MD

Vincent Felitti presents the ACE Study. Machel Thompson describes her use of resilience & protective factors measurement in clinical care of traumatized youth. Denyse Olson-Dorff & Vicki Bodendorfer will describe integration of this information into primary care at Gundersen Healthcare. William Cosgrove describes use of the Health-Resiliency-Stress Questionnaire (HRSQ) in primary care pediatrics. Dave Corwin will address building community awareness about trauma & resiliency. Kara Patin describes trauma-resiliency training for all Utah's Work Force Services Department employees & others. Victor Vieth describes development of Child Advocacy Studies in colleges & universities. David Corwin moderates the session.

Continuing Education: Approved up to 8.0 hours of CE credits for: psychologists, mfts, counselors, social workers, & nurses. IVAT Specialty Certifications: Approved up to 8.0 hours for: Trauma Care Providers, & Child & Adult Studies Training (CAAST)

For additional assistance please email:
registration@ivatcenters.org

