

Society Name: Schwartz Business Society

President's Name: Ryan Finn
Contact: x2014gou@stfx.ca

Description:

All Schwartz Business students are members of the Schwartz Business Society. There is an executive who play an active role in providing events, conferences, competitions, charity initiatives, and programs that enrich the experiences of Schwartz students. As an executive, they aim to help foster important relationships between classmates, professors, and industry professionals.

SBS spreads the word on conferences and competitions that provide important experiences to business students. The Business Society executive plays a major role in providing a multitude of opportunities to get involved, gain valuable leadership experience, while also providing services and events that contribute to the Schwartz experience.