

God Supreme

Verse 1

Almighty laughs as nations rage!
Our self-proclaimed "enlightened" age
May scorn and cast off sacred rules,
But God derides delusive fools.
His reign depends not on our whim;
We neither aid nor threaten Him.
Almighty bids us, "Kiss the Son,
Or by His anger be undone."

Verse 2

Almighty lives and cannot change;
Men rise and fall like crashing waves.
Their boasting is but vanity;
Man is no match for Deity.
The righteous live in endless day,
But fools, like chaff, blow soon away.
Almighty rules unruly men,
Who, though they scoff, will answer Him.

Verse 3

Almighty loves the sinful soul
And yearns to make the broken whole.
He came to rescue, not condemn—
The sinless Son, the sinner's Friend.
He suffered in the rebel's place
To take God's wrath and give God's grace
Almighty loves, and so must we,
That fellow sinners may go free.
