BEAR IN MIND

Black bears are omnivores and eat everything from berries, nuts, and grasses to insects, fish, and meat!

WELCOME TO CASHIERS!

Cashiers is a beautiful, high-mountain village in southwest North Carolina. The surrounding geography is punctuated with waterfalls, stone mountains, quiet lakes, verdant golf courses and secluded retreats. These mountains are among the oldest in the world and are full of hiking trails, legends, and some of the most beautiful forests ever seen. Whiteside Mountain boasts the highest rock face of any peak east of the Mississippi, while Lake Glenville is among the highest lakes east of the Mississippi.

This building used to be known as the Purple Onion Shoppe, a local general store. Give it a nice purple color!

"I JUST LOVE SANDWICHES!"

Did you know: By some estimates, Cornucopia makes nearly 10,000 sandwiches and burgers every year.
