Digital Health Summit

16 May 2019 | Illuminate, Science Museum, London
A unique venture capitalist

Investing smart money from some of the world’s most successful entrepreneurs and business people, Talis Capital has a strategic focus on backing early-stage technology companies with global potential.

The healthcare sector is notorious for being expensive and inefficient with traditional providers struggling to cope with modern-day industry dynamics. The sector desperately needs a technological revolution to help evolve the patient’s journey, bringing with it efficiencies, automation and a focus on prevention rather than ad hoc treatment. Having researched the space for the last two years, Talis Capital have only just scratched the surface of this exciting movement and are proud to showcase their pick of sub-sectors and the innovations and pioneers leading the change.

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Vasile Foca
Managing Partner & Co-Founder, Talis Capital
@vfoca

Vasile is a Co-Founder and Managing Partner of Talis Capital with more than 20 years of investment and entrepreneurial experience. Over his career, Vasile has helped scale a vast number of organisations from all stages of the business lifecycle. He holds (or did in the past) board positions on the boards of Darktrace, Luminance, IWOCA, Homelyfe, Learning People, PassTheKeys, CensorNet, PremFina, Beyond and Cygnet (among many others). He has actively contributed to key strategic decisions with a hands-on approach. Vasile also has extensive experience in building and scaling companies and is co-founder of several businesses including INTRESCO, Cygnet and Skwire. Vasile holds an MBA degree from London Business School and speaks Russian and Spanish.

Dr Martin Shen
President & Co-Founder, Tencent Trusted Doctors
@tencenttrusteddoctors

Dr Shen is a physician and senior executive with over 20 years of healthcare experience spanning Clinical Practice, Hospital Management and Healthcare IT. As the Co-Founder and President of Tencent Trusted Doctors, Dr Shen leads a team of professionals who share a passion for disrupting healthcare, innovating a new integrated online and offline model of healthcare delivery. This network currently supports the largest network of Trusted Doctors across China (440,000 credentialed physicians) with both an online physician workspace and the largest GP, Specialist & Day Surgery Center network across China.

Beatrice Aliprandi
Senior Analyst, Talis Capital
@bealiprandi

Beatrice joined Talis Capital in 2018 after spending three years working at Jefferies in their Investment Banking division, where she has been involved in several transactions, primarily in the Technology, Media and Telecoms space with a combined value of c.$4 billion. Beatrice holds a MSc in Risk and Finance from The London School of Economics and a BSc in Business Administration from Bocconi University.

Michael Heinrich
Founder & CEO, Oh My Green
@mheinrich

Michael is dedicated to helping corporations make their cultures more healthy and blissful. He previously worked at Microsoft as a Tech Product Manager, at Bain & Co, and at Bridgewater Associates. A frequent speaker and author, he loves to share his insights on wellness, as well as topics related to start-ups, AI, consciousness and more. He has taught and mentored at Stanford, where his “Hacking Consciousness” class was the only Stanford class to be included in the Best of 2014 Collection for iTunes U. He was a DFJ Entrepreneurial Leadership Fellow and frequent speaker/mentor in classes like “Rethinking Purpose” with Jennifer Aarker and “Lean Launchpad” with Steve Blank.
Sergey Musienko
Co-Founder & CEO, Atlas Biomed
@SergeyMusienko

Sergey Musienko is a bioinformatician with over a decade’s worth of experience using technology to address healthcare needs. A graduate of Moscow Institute of Physics and Technology, Sergey took time out to join Silicon Valley’s Singularity University, a think tank, in 2011. It was there that Sergey realised that the future was, in his words, “integrative personal omics profiles, that gather information about the body at a molecular level”. This insight led to him to found Atlas Biomed where he is currently the CEO. Sergey has brought together a deeply experienced team of scientists and bioinformaticians that have developed the company’s landmark products: direct-to-consumer Atlas DNA Test and Atlas Microbiome Test.

Dr Lavinia Ionita
Founder & CEO, Akesio
@akesio

Dr Ionita is a practitioner with a ground-breaking approach to medicine, dedicated to prevention and health instead of focusing on disease, like traditional medicine does. Dr Ionita graduated from the Craiova Faculty of Medicine in Romania, and the American Academy of Anti-Aging Medicine. She specialised in Addictology at the University of Paris-V and holds a Master’s Degree in Clinical Psychology and Psychopathology from the University of Paris-VIII. She also holds a Certificate in Genetics & Genomics from the University of Stanford with minors in Genetic Engineering, Biotechnology, Genomics Approach of Cancer, Stem Cells and Pharmacogenomics.

Gavin Dhesi
Co-Founder, Spill

Gavin started Spill in late 2017 with the mission of making therapy accessible to all. Spill offers message-based therapy for workplaces and universities and currently works with companies such as Monzo, Rightmove and Hargreaves Lansdown.

Melissa Morris
CEO & Founder, Lantum
@meliss_morris

Lantum is a total workforce platform for healthcare. To date, Lantum has saved the NHS nearly £10 million and enabled over 4.2 million GP appointments. In 2017, Melissa was named as an NHS Accelerator Fellow. She was previously a management consultant at McKinsey & Co, where she developed a passion for improving healthcare systems — so much so that she left to work for NHS London during its reorganisation in 2010. She founded Lantum in 2012.

Dee Dinneen
NHS Lead, Kheiron Medical @KheironMedical

Dee joined Kheiron in July 2018 to lead their partnership efforts in the NHS and Europe focussing on creating meaningful collaborations with clinical partners, in order to deliver multidisciplinary data-driven projects which facilitate the training of Kheiron’s deep learning tools, and the validation of the software’s performance on real-world data in a series of clinical trials. Kheiron’s mission is to radically improve the diagnosis of cancer by delivering AI solutions that support doctors in everyday practice. Previously Dee ran an NHS- and EU-funded Accelerator programme working with over 60 start-ups to understand and navigate the NHS.
Andrew Gardner
CEO, DoctorLink
@getdoctorlink

In 2015 Andrew joined Medvivo and in 2017 he founded DoctorLink as a sister company to Medvivo. Medvivo has just been assessed as an ‘outstanding’ service provider by the CQC for the second time and DoctorLink is establishing itself as the leading digital health provider in the UK, and is now taking this capability global. In 2005 he led the creation of a joint venture between the health division of the IT Services business and a GP Co-op becoming the CEO. The company grew from a turnover of £3 million in 2005 to £120 million in 2012 and became the largest independent sector provider of Primary Care services to the NHS. It was sold to Care UK in 2012.

Matteo Berlucchi
Co-Founder & CEO, Your.MD
@matteoberlucchi

Matteo is a serial digital entrepreneur with over 20 years’ experience in building disruptive digital services across multiple industries. He co-founded Your.MD in 2015 with the objective to help people find the safest, most personalised and actionable health information online, free of charge. Your.MD has been defining the space for AI-based health information since its inception and their service is today one of the leading AI applications in digital health in the world. Matteo is a mentor, lecturer in innovation and entrepreneurship (Imperial, Goldsmiths, ETH Zurich) and an angel investor.

Dr Elina Naydenova
CEO, Feebris
@feebris

Dr Elina Naydenova is a biomedical engineer, with a PhD in Machine Learning for Healthcare from Oxford University. She founded Feebris to deliver AI-powered precision diagnosis in communities; Feebris works with children in India, and the elderly in the UK. Elina has previously worked on health innovation projects for the World Health Organisation.

Stuart Grant
Chief Medical Officer, Rinicare
@stuartwgrant

Stuart Grant is a specialist trainee in cardiac surgery who has published extensively on clinical prediction models. He is chief medical officer of Rinicare, an SME based in North West England focused on integrating state-of-the-art technology into clinical systems.

Dave Palmer
Head of Technology, Darktrace
@darktrace

Dave Palmer is the Director of Technology at Darktrace, overseeing the mathematics and engineering teams and project strategies. With over ten years of experience at the forefront of government intelligence operations, Palmer has worked across UK intelligence agencies GCHQ and MI5, where he delivered mission-critical infrastructure services, including the replacement and security of entire global networks, the development of operational internet capabilities and the management of critical disaster recovery incidents. He holds a first-class degree in Computer Science and Software Engineering from the University of Birmingham.

Matthew De Jesus
Principal, Talis Capital
@the_De_Jesus

Matthew has five years of investment experience at Talis and is heavily involved in all of Talis’ digital ventures. He supports the Partners on investments including Darktrace, Onfido and Price f(x), leads on omni:us and sits on the board of Pirate Studios and Luminance. Matthew holds a BSc (Hons) Economics from The London School of Economics.
Stephanie Eltz
Founder & CEO, Doctify
@Doctorpreneurs
Stephanie trained in medicine and worked as an NHS trauma and orthopaedic surgeon before co-founding Doctify with a fellow doctor. Doctify is a platform that aims to increase transparency and improve care by helping doctors, clinics, hospitals, and insurance companies collect patient reviews. On the website, patients can find and book rated doctors and clinics.

Alistair Cohen
Founder & CEO, OnCare
@weareoncare
Alistair is a Mechanical Engineer and Product Manager by background, who has launched a range of physical and digital products with companies like McGraw Hill, British Gas, and MOO. Alistair started OnCare in collaboration with Founders Factory and Aviva, after realising how critical the care sector was to our current and future population, yet how starved it was of modern technology and how, as a result, time and money was being wasted that could have been used to improve care standards. OnCare’s care management software is now live with over 100 care agencies around the UK and over 800 care workers.

Dr David Atkins
CEO, Congenica
@Congenica
Dr Atkins has over 25 years’ experience as a global leader in a broad range of diagnostics and healthcare businesses. He has held senior positions in R&D, business development, operations and sales and marketing. Prior to joining Congenica in 2018, Dr Atkins was CEO of Synevo, a clinical diagnostic laboratory service business operating across Germany and Eastern Europe. Past roles also include global head of the Advanced Staining pathology business unit for Leica Biosystems, a Danaher Company. Dr Atkins has over 20 years’ experience with Johnson & Johnson in R&D, business development and in senior international commercial roles.

Katrina Percy
CEO, Ryalto
@ryaltoapp
Katrina joined the NHS over 23 years ago as a graduate management trainee and since then has worked in all sectors of the health service, including two years running a hospital in Tanzania. Since leaving the NHS, Katrina has helped a number of start-ups enter the UK health market and now heads up the team at Ryalto, a mobile platform for healthcare workers helping them to take control of their working life.

Leander de Laporte
MD & Co-Founder, Medbelle
@Medbelle
Leander is a tech entrepreneur and Co-Founder of Medbelle. Having grown up in a family of medics and started coding the age of 13, building technology for the healthcare sector was inevitable for him. After having studied international business at WHU, founded a marketing company, supported a variety of start-ups in Germany and the US and gained experience in management consulting at BCG, he started building the world’s first digital hospital in 2016. Their vision is to create a world in which all patients can navigate their treatment journey digitally and receive personal care at the click of a button.

Christopher McCann
Co-Founder & CEO, Current Health
@christophmccann @HeyCurrent
With a background in computer science, Christopher co-founded Current Health as a medical student before subsequently leaving to focus on building the company.
Mark Jenkins
Co-Founder & MD, Oviva
@DrMarkJenkins
Oviva is a company digitising behaviour change therapy for lifestyle conditions such as type 2 diabetes and obesity. Mark trained as a doctor at Guy’s & St Thomas’ Hospitals in London, where he also completed an academic foundation programme specialising in nephrology, and then moved to the Boston Consulting Group working across private equity and healthcare. Today, Oviva operates across Switzerland, Germany, France and the UK, and Mark leads international research strategy and health insurer commercial operations.

Andre Chow
Co-Founder & CPO, Digital Surgery
@DigitalSurgery
Andre gained a BSc degree in Surgical Technology and graduated from Imperial College School of Medicine in 2004. He began his surgical training at St Mary’s Hospital in London and in 2006 became a full member of the Royal College of Surgeons. In 2008 he was awarded one of three places as an Academic Clinical Fellow, and in 2009 was appointed a Clinical Innovation Fellow at Imperial College London. In 2010 he was awarded a prestigious Wellcome Trust Research Fellowship to pursue research in the fields of stem cell technology and biomaterials, and completed his PhD at Imperial College in 2012.

Thom Van Every
MD, ViiV Healthcare
@_DrThom
Dr Thom Van Every is a UK-trained medical doctor who has worked across most parts of the healthcare value chain. He trained as an obstetrician and gynaecologist, and as a clinician he has worked in the UK, South Africa and Ireland. He has co-founded and exited a couple of healthcare start-ups: one a private medical insurance company; and the second an online doctor service called DrThom, which he sold to Lloyds Pharmacy in 2013. He has also been Medical Director of Lloyds Pharmacy, worked in Policy Development for Marie Stopes International and is currently UK Medical Director of ViiV Healthcare, a £4.5 billion annual turnover HIV-focused pharma company that is majority owned by GlaxoSmithKline. Thom is also an angel investor in various health-related start-ups in the UK and US.

Dr Zul Mirza
