Louise Calixte, Chief Program Officer, Temporary Housing

Louise B. Calixte is the Chief Program Officer of Temporary Housing at Inspirica. Louise was initially brought on board as the Director of the Family Emergency Shelter in 2014. She eventually became the Director of the Family Housing Program, which includes responsibility for the oversight and daily management of the emergency shelter as well as the transitional housing program. Currently, Louise oversees Inspirica’s Temporary Housing Program, which includes our Family Housing Program, Emergency Housing, and Transitional Housing.

Louise has an undergraduate degree in Psychology and Criminal Justice from Temple University in Philadelphia, PA. Louise continued her studies at the State University of New York at Buffalo Law School where she earned her Juris Doctorate. Prior to Inspirica, Ms. Calixte was a Family Life Advocate/Stabilization Specialist at the Families-In-Transition Program in association with the YMCA in Boston, MA.
