

Denise Durham Williams, Chief Executive Officer

Denise Durham Williams, Chief Executive Officer, came to Inspirica in 2019. Denise came to Inspirica with a strong background and over 20 years of experience in leadership in both the non-profit and private sectors. Her track record includes organizations such as Sponsors for Educational Opportunity, Student Sponsor Partners, Kids in Distressed Situations, One Family, Citigroup and JP Morgan Chase. Ms. Williams has a BA in Economics from Tufts University.

Throughout her career, Denise has developed expertise in strategic planning, development, advocacy, community relations, organizational growth, partnerships, fiscal responsibility and compliance. She has extensive community involvement and has received numerous awards of achievement including Woman of Achievement from the Committee of Hispanic Children and Families, The Beacon for Homelessness Award and the Civic Spirit Award from the Women's City Club on New York. Denise lives in White Plains, NY.

