

Sandy Ivey
Nashville, TN

As Case Work Supervisor for America World Adoption, Sandy can often be found traveling from meal to meal to connect with a family she is working with. When she isn't breaking bread with those families, she's breaking it with her own --usually in some fun location with her husband Steve and their (gown-ish) boys.

Sandy's momma named her Sandra, which she says means "helper of all mankind"...so we think that her momma knew who God was giving us, as Sandy spends her free time serving on the Middle Tennessee Orphan Alliance (MTOA) and Tennessee Alliance for Kids (TAK
