Denver—November 2, 2016—At the end of September, founder David Kendall officially opened Bold Legal’s doors, and in a little over a month, the firm has already attracted five additional founders. This experienced group of attorneys, hailing from a variety of Colorado firms, were all drawn to Bold Legal because of their shared belief that practicing law with respect, compassion, skill and integrity leads to improved client outcomes and exceptional client service.

Bold Legal adds to its list of founders:

Craig Garby, Founder & Attorney
