

Privacy Policy

SUF (UK) may hold your contact information and any other information deemed necessary for the running of our programmes overseas. This may include, but is not limited to contact information, passport details, medical history and criminal background information. Where possible, we will endeavour to keep this information as up to date and accurate as possible.

During your interaction with SUF (UK) we may share this information as laid out in our terms and conditions with our operators, staff, and where applicable and reasonable, other volunteers.

Should you wish access to the information held in our database you are entitled to it by completing a Data Subject Access Request and paying a £10 fee. If you wish to remove any of the data held, please email us at info@shareduniverse.co.uk with the specific details of the data you wish to be removed.

Cookies

Cookies are small text files held on your computer allowing us to identify anonymous browsing habits. These files will be placed by us on each device you use to browse our website. By using our website you agree to our use of cookies as described below.

SUF (UK) uses cookies to improve your usability of our website and enhance your interactions with it.

This site uses analytical and application cookies.

Analytical cookies allow us to monitor your use of our websites and track our marketing efforts to ensure we can spend as little as possible recruiting volunteers and maximise our efforts and impact on the ground.

Application cookies allow us to improve your experience on our website and our service to you during the browsing process.

Cookies can be refused or deleted by going into your browser settings and doing so. This will clear all information held on your computer with relation to your use of our websites. If you are unsure how to do this, please use the help feature within your browser. You should complete this action on each of your devices.

Disclaimer

SUF (UK) will use reasonable measures to ensure the information on our website is accurate and endeavour to keep it so. We will from time to time advertise new programmes or offerings, that may differ from the final offering. Please see our terms and conditions regarding programme changes.

SUF (UK) shall not be held liable for losses or damages resulting from the use of our websites and disclaims all warranties, whether express or implied to the maximum extent permitted by law.
