Enable a Young Person in India to Realize Their University Dreams & Change the Course of Their Life!

Sham
Bachelors of Engineering
St. Xavier’s College of Engineering, Nagercoil

S. Sham Fernandes just completed his final year of secondary school. He lost his father when he was just five years old. His mother works as a day laborer and supports him and his sister in continuing their studies. Sham has a brother who dropped out of school in secondary school in order to share the family burden. He too works as a day laborer earning a meager day wage.

Sham wishes to pursue his Bachelors in Engineering at St. Xavier’s College in Nagercoil so that he can one day earn enough to relieve his mother of her work responsibilities and support his sister in getting married. “I never blame God for having taken away my father, because some of my friends in school don’t have either parent. I am blessed in a way,” he said. Sham is a highly positive and motivated individual who has high aspirations he hopes to achieve.
