

SÖNDÖRGŐ

"Söndörgő are proving themselves to be one of Europe's most versatile and exciting bands."/ /Simon Broughton, Songlines Magazine/

VIRTUOSO TAMBURITZA BROTHERS

A brotherhood of virtuosity, innovation and respect, Söndörgő from Hungary combine excellent musicianship with a rock'n'roll attitude and their signature instrument, the Hungaro-Serbian tambura.

Discover the delicate beauty and fizzing energy of a different Balkan sound. Come and dance the čoček, drink palinka and get dizzy on Söndörgő's extraordinary odd rhythms.

BIO

Söndörgő is one of the leading exponents of tamburitza music from Hungary. Founded by the Eredics brothers in the mid-90s, this exciting ensemble is committed to performing and promoting the Southern Slavic folk music collected by Béla Bartók and Tihamer Vujicis and celebrated by communities along the Danube River.

The group was founded in 1995 in Szentendre, a small Hungarian town near Budapest with long-established Serbian traditions. Söndörgő's mission is to research, arrange and perform this heritage on stage with dazzling energy and apparent joy.
