French Teacher

La Lumiere School seeks applicants to join our faculty as a French Teacher for the 2020-2021 school year. As a learning community, our teachers strive to go beyond content mastery in order to help students develop a sense of wonder and an appetite for lifelong learning. The ideal candidate would be comfortable teaching all levels of high school French. We believe in meeting students where they are, differentiating instruction, and supporting students’ academic and personal growth.

Our course offerings for this position are: French 1-4 and Advanced Placement French Language and Culture.

Primary Responsibilities

- Teach five sections of classes each semester (five preps)
- Coach or sponsor a co-curricular activity during two seasons
- Serve as an advisor to a group of approximately eight students
- Potentially serve on residential duty teams (responsibilities vary depending on the constellation of duties and living arrangement)

Faculty compensation packages are competitive. In addition to departmental budgets, faculty have a personal innovation fund to enhance learning in their classes. If a faculty member resides on campus, the school provides year-round housing and meals when school is in session for the faculty member and his/her family as a part of the benefits package. Other benefits include an optional health plan, a contribution to a TIAA-CREF retirement account, and professional development opportunities.

Ten-month appointment (August-May)
Reports to the Assistant Head of School for Academics

Please submit a résumé, cover letter, and a list of three-five references to Andrew Hoyt (ahoyt@lalumiere.org). Two letters of recommendation are optional, but encouraged. References will only be contacted after permission is granted by candidates.
