ABOUT

Catholic Charities St. Joseph's Family Center is dedicated to improving the lives of families in the midst of personal struggle. St. Joseph's Family Center is one of four emergency housing facilities offering shelter to San Francisco families. Our staff works with clients through the transition from homelessness into long-term or supportive housing.

Through St. Joseph's Family Center programs, families receive three to six months emergency shelter, three meals daily, on-site case management, counseling, and crisis intervention. With assistance from staff, families are assessed and referred to housing options. In addition, St. Joseph's Family Center offers money management and job search support, parenting workshops and activity programs geared to assist families in maintaining healthy relationships.
