

SELECTED ARTWORKS BY RHYS LEE

VIEWING BY APPOINTMENT ONLY

Rhys Lee's images are a product of rigorous process. A prolific artist, his strong understanding of colour relationships, mark making and suggestive figuration has developed through continual experimentation and repetition in the studio. This process of working dictates the content of Lee's images, as figures as diverse as cartoon characters, horror tropes and emotional archetypes emerge from the subconscious through the almost automatic act of painting and drawing. The humanoid face, or at least its suggestion or abstraction, is present in all of Lee's imagery. Each work operates as a type of self-portrait, offering a fleeting glimpse of an aspect of the artist, before the face is reconfigured in the following image in Lee's continual production.

Rhys Lee has held solo exhibitions in Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth, Sydney and internationally in New York, USA; Cologne Germany and Gisborne New Zealand. His work has been included in group exhibitions at the Ian Potter Museum, Melbourne (2015), the Archibald Prize at the Art Gallery of New South Wales (2012), Mornington Peninsula Regional Gallery (2001), The University of Queensland National Artist's Self Portrait Prize (2009) and the Doug Moran Prize at the State Library of New South Wales (2009). Internationally, his work has been included in group exhibitions in Dusseldorf, Germany; London, UK and New York, USA. Lee has a Bachelor of Visual Arts, Graphic Design from the Queensland College of Art (1997). A monograph on the artist was published in 2009. Lee's work is held in the collections of the National Gallery of Australia, the University of Queensland Art Museum and Artbank.
