Susan Blackwood and Howard Friedland have been professional artists their whole careers, each following their own path until they met in 1997 and married in 1998.

Prior to meeting, Susan was a successful watercolorist with prints of her work circling the world. Howard had been a successful art director on Madison Avenue in New York, Miami, Florida and Albuquerque, New Mexico. He began painting fine art in 1972. When they met, they joined forces and started promoting their careers together.

In 2003, Susan added oils to her art mediums.

Both artists have won top National Awards at National Art Society Shows.

Blackwood and Friedland teach locally in Bozeman, Montana; as well as around the USA and internationally. For over 25 years they have brought artists on numerous painting trips to the far corners of the world. Howard teaches oil painting and drawing and Susan teaches watercolors and oil painting, as well as drawing and sketching.

They are both classically trained artists, extremely knowledgeable in the designing and execution of painting as well as the power of being able to express your emotional reaction to any subject. They paint all subjects, landscapes, seascapes, cityscapes, interiors, figures, portraits, animals, flowers and still life, from panorama to close up intimate subjects.

They live in Bozeman, Montana USA and have a wonderful studio uniquely designed for their painting and teaching careers.

COME AND PAINT EN PLEIN AIR IN NEW ZEALAND WITH HOWARD AND SUSAN

WELCOME TO NEW ZEALAND

Spend 11 days with us as we explore the highlights of this stunning region. Find out for yourself just why Peter Jackson chose New Zealand as Middle Earth.

During your stay, you will be lodging just minutes walk from the spectacular lakefront in Wanaka, that in itself is a painting. All amenities are close at hand, with local cafes, restaurants, banks, shops and a supermarket being all within easy walking distance.

During the day, we will go on excursions to specifically selected painting sites that will satisfy your painting needs. Whether it be quaint architecture, breathtaking landscape, neatly planted vineyards, or striking mountains, you will not be disappointed.

Some highlights of the tour:

- Arrowtown, the historic gold mining town located on the banks of the Arrow River.
- Queenstown, with its towering mountains above the lake, it is a spectacular sight to spend a day or two.
- The Crown Range, showcasing stunning views of the region
- Vineyards, Central Otago is well-known for its Pinot Noir
- Secluded bays with magical landscapes surrounding them
