

The Taft Lecture Committee of Christ Church Cathedral presents author

Chuck Collins

Speaking on his best selling book
Born on Third Base

A One Percenter Makes the Case for Tackling Inequality, Bringing Wealth Home, and Committing to the Common Good

November 13, 2017 | 7:00 PM

Chuck Collins is the author of Born on Third Base: A One Percenter Makes the Case for Tackling Inequality, Bringing Wealth Home, and Committing to the Common Good (Chelsea Green, 2016).

He is a senior scholar at the Institute for Policy Studies and is the cofounder of Wealth for the Common Good. He is a national expert on economic inequality, tax policy, corporate power and class privilege and power. He lives in Boston, Massachusetts.

FREE EVENT MUST PRESENT TICKET

For your free ticket, visit Eventbrite.com

Parking is conveniently located at Queen City Square Garage, directly across the street from the cathedral's Fourth Street entrance, for a $5 fee.

“Most people look at the story of inequality through the lens of deservedness. Our present inequalities can only be explained by historical systems of racial and class advantage and huge economic and political distortions in the economy. To unpack the deservedness narrative requires honesty in public storytelling that presently doesn't exist.”

- Chuck Collins

cincinnati.cathedral.com

