

Earth Discovery Institute
Newsletter: October 2011

This month, we're all about preparing to treat you to a wonderful time at...

Hawks, Hikes, and Heroes!

EDI's Annual Fundraising Event

Since the start of the school year, EDI has had to turn away 1,700 students who want to participate in our program, due to lack of funds. Your participation in this exciting event could make the difference for these young people, introducing them to science in the most compelling way, showing them the joys of nature, and instilling the important ethic of civic responsibility. Join us Saturday, November 5, 2011, 8am – 12:30pm at 1171 Horsemill Road, El Cajon, CA 92021.

Mountain bikers and equestrians, join special guided rides just for you!
Hikers, we have a short and long hike,
both with wonderful guides to show you around Crestridge!

Silent Auction and Raffle Items include:

- Native American Art
- Hand Crafted Gourds
- Original Photography
- Native Plants and Seeds
- Native Plant Gardening Books
- Jerry Schad Autographed Books
- Museum Passes
- Owl and Bat Boxes
- And more!

Register at <http://www.earthdiscovery.org/>, or mail registration to 120 North Park Drive, El Cajon, CA 92021. $25 adults, $10 kids. $30 at the door so register now!

Questions? Contact Linda Chase, 619-246-4300/lindarathome@yahoo.com, or Cathy Chadwick, 619-277-3605/chadgroup@cox.net.