

6th Annual

Michigan Undergraduate Philosophy Conference

Flint, MI
Feb 16, 2018

Call for Papers

Theme: Cognition and Neuroethics

Topics relevant to this theme include but are not limited to: Philosophy of Mind, Philosophy of Cognitive Science, Neuroscience, or general Philosophy of Science, Philosophy of Action (Free Will), Identity, Philosophy of Psychology, Bioethics, Medical Ethics, Consciousness, Pain and Suffering, Memory, Learning, Belief and Knowledge, Moral and Ethical Responsibility, Learning, Medicine, Health, Illness and Disease

Papers submitted should be timed for a 20 minute presentation. Each talk will be followed by a 20 minute question and answer session. The purpose of this conference is to support and encourage the intellectual work of undergraduates, so all papers submitted should be the work of undergraduate students currently affiliated with an undergraduate institution.

To submit your paper: <http://cognethic.org/events/2018/2/16/michigan-undergraduate-philosophy-conference>

The deadline for paper submission is January 19 2018.

For further information, contact student editor, Cody Hatfield-Myers: hatfield-myers@cognethic.org

The annual Michigan Undergraduate Philosophy Conference is organized by the University of Michigan-Flint Philosophy Club with the guidance of the Center for Cognition and Neuroethics, and is sponsored by the University of Michigan-Flint Philosophy Department.