

Student Leadership Team

To be a student leader is to be someone who commits to living out their calling as a servant of God in Christ. To be on the AYM Student Leadership Team is to take charge in fulfilling the mission that God has given His children to make disciples. It is a ten-week commitment to grow in Christ as a leader as you help move Advent Youth Ministry forward in making disciples.

A Student Leader

- Is a high school student
- A baptized member of Advent Presbyterian Church
- Shows a desire for personal growth in Christ
- Strives to participate in Church worship, Connect Groups, Huddle, EPIC, service projects, retreats, and trips whenever possible
- Wholeheartedly commits to ten weeks of developing as a leader
  - By attending SLT meetings (Wednesdays, 330p-530p)
  - Completing reading assignments
  - Helping with retreat/trip planning
  - Leading a ministry team or project
  - Regularly praying and reading the Bible
- Receives a $50 scholarship towards the trip for which they're preparing

Note: If at any time as a Student Leader you cannot fulfill these requirements, you can step off the SLT and reapply for the next team.
