

OKW Architects seeks to develop meaningful relationships as the foundation of everything we do. As trusted advisors, our goal is to serve our clients with original thinking and imaginative spirit, while grounded in deep-rooted experience. Combined, this translates to mutually successful outcomes for all stakeholders.

As we approach our 60th year of successful project design, OKW continues to enhance and celebrate the integration of architectural, interior design, landscape and land planning expertise within a diverse group of market types. As we look toward the future of our design practice, it is our relationship-driven foundation that will continue to drive design excellence, entrepreneurial spirit and client service.
