

MANCHESTER WESLEY RESEARCH CENTRE

WHO WE ARE

The MWRC is a strategic hub for research, consisting of a network of scholars pursuing research in Wesleyan and Evangelical traditions. It also acts as a global partnership of affiliated institutions.

OUR PURPOSE

We promote and support research on the life and work of John and Charles Wesley, their contemporaries in the 18th century Evangelical Revival, their historical and theological antecedents, their successors in the Wesleyan tradition, and contemporary scholarship in the Wesleyan and Evangelical traditions.

PARTNERS

MWRC is a collaborative partnership between a range of institutions in the United Kingdom, Canada, and the United States, with the common aim of supporting and producing high-quality research for the academy and in service to the church. Current institutional partners are:

- Ambrose University
- Asbury Theological Seminary
- Asbury University
- Cliff College
- The International Board of Education of the Church of the Nazarene
- The John Rylands Library
- Nazarene Theological College
- Nazarene Theological Seminary
- Northwest Nazarene University
- Pentecostal Theological Seminary
- Point Loma Nazarene University
- Religions and Theology at The University of Manchester
- Wesley Seminary at Indiana Wesleyan University

The John Rylands Library

FACILITIES

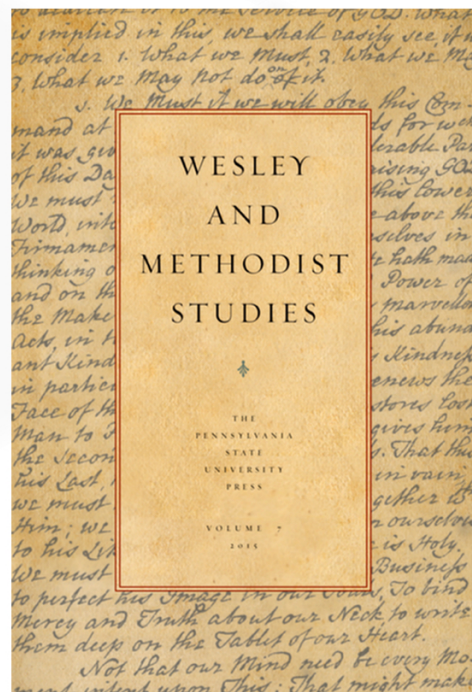

The MWRC provides a convenient, comfortable, and welcoming study base for research, with the MWRC having its own library of published and unpublished materials.

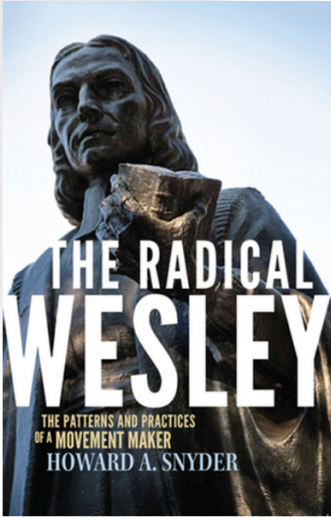

Additionally, the Nazarene Theological College and John Rylands libraries are also available to researchers.

FELLOWS & PARTNERS

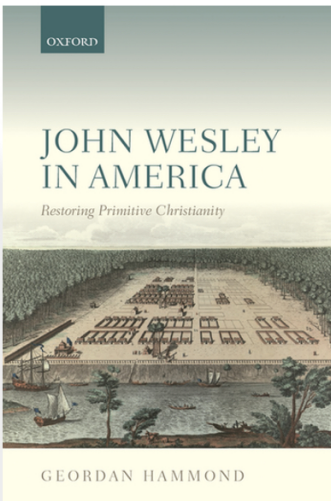

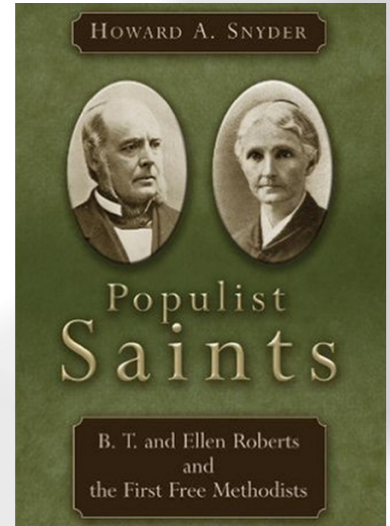

The hundreds of Fellows affiliated with the MWRC give the Centre its vitality. These include Junior Fellows (doctoral students at MWRC partner institutions), Fellows (doctoral supervisors), Honorary Fellows, Visiting Research Fellows, and Post-doctoral Fellows.

The MWRC offers study opportunities for Fellows and other scholars who want to take advantage of the unprecedented resources available in Manchester. The Centre helps disseminate the work of researchers linked to the Centre and other scholarship in Methodist/Wesleyan studies through various means such as scholarly events and publication in Wesley and Methodist Studies.
