One Person Can Make a Difference in G-d’s History: Will YOU Be One of Them?

"I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And I will not let what I cannot do interfere with what I can do."

Adapted citation of E.E. Hale that was shared by peace activist lawyer, Dr. Hope Elizabeth May - the wife of renowned big tobacco whistleblower, Dr. Jeffrey Wigand.

26 In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, 27 to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Yosef, a descendant of David, and the virgin's name was Miriam. 28 The angel came to her and said, "Rejoice, favored one, the LORD is with you!" 29 But she was greatly perplexed by his words and began to wonder about the meaning of this greeting. 30 So the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Miriam, for you have found favor with God! 31 Listen: You will become pregnant and give birth to a son, and you will name him Yeshua. 32 He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of his father David. 33 He will reign over the house of Yaakov (Jacob) forever, and his kingdom will never end."
Miriam: The Mother of Yeshua the Messiah

34 Miriam said to the angel, "How will this be, since I have not had marital relations with a man?"
35 The angel replied, "The Ruach HaKodesh will arrive upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore the child to be born will be holy; he will be called the Son of God.
36 "And look, your relative Elizabeth has also become pregnant with a son in her old age—although she was called infertile, she is now in her sixth month!
37 For nothing will be impossible with God."
38 So Miriam said, "Yes, I am a slave of the LORD; let this happen to me according to your word." Then the angel departed from her.
Miriam: The Mother of Yeshua the Messiah

39 In those days Miriam got up and went hurriedly into the hill country, to a town of Judah, 40 and entered Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth. 41 When Elizabeth heard Miriam's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Ruach HaKodesh. 42 She exclaimed with a loud voice, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the child in your uterus! 43 And who am I that the mother of my Lord should come and visit me? 44 For the instant the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. 45 And blessed is she who believed that what was spoken to her by the Lord would be fulfilled."
And Miriam said, "My whole being exalts the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, because He has looked upon the humble state of his slave. For from now on all generations will call me blessed, because He who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is His name; from generation to generation He is merciful to those who fear him. He has demonstrated power with his arm; He has scattered those whose pride wells up from the sheer arrogance of their hearts. He has brought down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up those of lowly position; He has filled the hungry with good things, and has sent the rich away empty. He has helped his servant Israel, remembering His mercy, as He promised to our ancestors, to Abraham and to his descendants forever."
