

Nisa Lee was our leader in every facet of planning our destination wedding on June 26, 2016 in Charleston, South Carolina. Nisa began helping us with our planning approximately one year before the wedding. From our first meeting, it didn't take much time to realize that we would be choosing to work with Nisa for the remainder of our engagement. She came into the first meeting with many wonderful ideas, but more importantly, she took the time to get to know us as a couple and helped us begin to visualize what we wanted our wedding day to look like, sound like, and feel like.

Nisa was integrally involved in every facet of our planning; she not only handled our destination wedding, but rehearsal dinner, travel and accommodation research, and pre-wedding week activities that were all part of our amazing wedding celebration we had imagined. Her time management skills were exemplary; she was always available and accessible to us and our many questions and requests. Nisa and her assistant, Kerry were able to take care of details we were not interested in, and was able to give extremely practical input into any decisions that we did choose to be involved in. She was gracious in her dealings with our parents, and was transparent in all communications, be it financial or otherwise. Nisa managed to create an elegant event that truly represented us. Her professionalism shined during conference calls when she was able to keep all involved on track and progressing forward. An excellent project manager, always able to keep everyone on agenda and constantly on top of the never ending to-do list. She broke each step down into manageable pieces and took the time to guide us through each decisions.

What set Nisa apart and made us appreciate her as much more than just our wedding planner was her personal and social efforts to work with us as a couple rather than just a "client." She not only asked questions, she actively listened to our thoughts and then incorporated them into her suggestions and decisions. She came to understand what we value in each other as partners, and she helped us to realize how that could be represented genuinely in our wedding. She treated us as more than clients, but family. Without exaggeration, we owe our flawless wedding day success to Nisa and Kerry. It was literally everything we had hoped for and more. If there were any challenges on the day of, we never knew about them because they were there every step of the way to take care of them. Everything went off without a hitch, not only keeping us from worrying, but allowing us even more time to celebrate throughout the event.

We recommend Nisa as not only an event planner, but an elegant project manager that strives to meet her clients every need. Without hesitation, we would recommend Nisa to help you personalize any occasion. Thank you Nisa and Kerry for all you did to make our wedding the best day of our lives! We had an awesome time and none of it could have been possible without all your input, ideas, patience, understanding and hard work.

It was exactly how we had hoped it would be and much more!
