Summer Mexican Dining at Del Sur in South Park

July 10, 2017

Del Sur Mexican Cantina brings lighter summer fare like Jackfruit with a Mexican twist to South Park. From the owners of popular Kensington Cafe and The Haven, Del Sur combines great service and lively ambiance with mouth-watering food and sensational cocktails. In addition to their more traditional Mexican fare like hearty burritos and enchiladas, Del Sur has lighter summer options that are perfect washed down with some cool, zesty margaritas.

Go on Monday for Margarita Monday for $2 off any of their margaritas! The classic Cadillac Margarita is a crowd favorite - with Espolon Reposado, lime, orange, agave, and Grand Marnier. Also try the Mango Chilli Margarita - 100% agave tequila reposado, mango, pineapple, lime, triple sec, serrano.

Start with the light and refreshing Ceviche - seasonal local fish in a citrus marinade with cucumbers, peppers, red onion, cilantro, and serrano served with avocado.

Del Sur's interpretation of the new Jackfruit food trend is a flavorful adobo marinated Jackfruit Tacos with poblano crema and chipotle aioli.

While there are tons of vegetarian options, meat lovers should try their Carne Asada plate with guacamole, charred panela, beans, rice and pickled cactus.
