Nile Rodgers’ We Are Family Foundation Announces
2022 Global Teen Leaders

29 Global Teen Leaders from 18 countries to gather and tackle the planet’s most pressing issues

New York, New York, May 23, 2022 - UPDATED – Nile Rodgers’ We Are Family Foundation (WAFF) is honored to announce the 2022 Three Dot Dash Global Teen Leaders (GTLs), representing 18 countries on 5 continents. Twenty-nine (29) teens were selected for their social good innovations, organizations, projects and promise for a more just, equitable and peaceful future.

Collectively, their work addresses all 17 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals. These extraordinary young people are: Creating pipelines in the tech sector for marginalized populations in Nigeria; Ensuring a safe right to education in Israel and Palestine; Democratizing healthcare by creating novel, patented care diagnostics for disease prevention in Canada; Reducing pollution in ocean waters off India; Combatting the taboo surrounding menstrual, sexual and reproductive health in rural Peru, and so much more.

The 2022 GTLs will convene virtually from July 11 – August 12, 2022 for WAFF’s 14th Three Dot Dash Just Peace Summit.

“The world is in a very dangerous place – environmentally, economically, politically, combined with systemic inequity and injustice permeating throughout. We need global cooperation to effectively address these issues, and we need to look to our global youth for their ideas, solutions and actions to save our planet. They don’t believe in the word “NO”. They believe that anything is possible, and they ACT on it. We are honored to bring the 2022 Global Teen Leaders (GTLs) into our WAFF community of hundreds of GTL Alumni and Mentors. Working independently and in collaboration across borders and cultures the GTLs remain our hope for the now, and the future. We remain grateful to our partners, SAP and Susan Rockefeller for continuing to believe in the power of our global youth.” – Nile Rodgers & Nancy Hunt.
