Noelle Wins Hospitality Design Magazine’s HD Award for Upscale Public Space

Makeready’s Marquee Property in Nashville Receives Notoriety at Hospitality Design Magazine’s 15th Annual Awards

DALLAS, Texas - June 10, 2019 - Makeready’s Nashville hotel, Noelle, received the ‘Upscale Public Space’ award at the 15th annual Hospitality Design HD Awards June 5, 2019 in New York City. A distinguished panel of industry professionals selected this year’s finalists and winners from more than 1,000 entries.

Noelle is a reimagined 224-room hotel housed in the former home of one of downtown Nashville’s first luxury properties, Noel Place. Located on the corner of Fourth Avenue and Church Street on historic Printers Alley, Noelle sets itself apart from other hotels on what has recently become known as “Boutique Row” by offering guests an authentic, considered experience curated by leaders of Nashville’s thriving creative maker community. Noelle pays homage to the property’s Art Deco roots and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Nashville-based architects Nick Dryden of Dryden Architecture and Design (DAAD), Feltus Hawkins Design, and creative branding experts Peck & Company, led by Benji Peck, helped redesign the 13-story building. The teams masterfully preserved the historic hotel, while infusing it with renewed energy. Through their relationships, there are over 50 individual makers that contributed to the style and ethos of Noelle.

“The collaboration of architects, design and makers past and present make this hotel a true gem in historic downtown Nashville,” said Christine Magrann, COO of Makeready. “The integrity to originality and the follow-through of more modernized accents create a bond between the past and future.”

A talented and accomplished panel of industry professionals were selected as this year’s jury. For projects: Ave Bradley, creative director and global senior vice president of design, Kimpton Hotels & Restaurants; Alexandra Champalimaud, founder, Champalimaud; Jim Merkel, CEO, Rockbridge; Glenn Pushelberg and George Yabu, founding partners, Yabu Pushelberg; and Brad Wilson, president, Ace Hotel Group and Atelier Ace.
