

The Bachelor of Arts in Theological Studies Program

The Bachelor of Arts in Theological Studies is a degree that provides students with an understanding of the history, context and message of the Bible as well as teaching the historical and theological developments within the framework of Christianity.

What You Will Learn?

Theology is essentially the study of the nature of God and religious beliefs. This degree provides students with in-depth knowledge of the history, beliefs, traditions, and modern roles of religion, with a focus on Christianity. Students study and analyze sacred writings, historical events, and the global impact of Christianity. This degree emphasizes systematic or biblical theology, as well as including coursework on concepts such as character formation and worship.

This degree offers students valuable skills and useful knowledge. Students develop academic skills such as research, critical analysis, and communication, which are desirable in many vocations. Students of faith often consider the degree coursework personally satisfying, while other students find that they gain useful insights into widespread doctrines and beliefs that influence many current events.

What You Can Do With This Degree?

Various career opportunities are available to graduates with a BA in Theology. These individuals may pursue ecclesiastical work in various dominations, or they may go on to help others through social work, civil service, or organizations. Graduates may also teach or continue their studies through higher education.

Bachelor of Arts BA-TS

This degree program is for those who would like to focus primarily on biblical studies and the development of a biblical foundation. The combination of Bible, theology, general ministry and leadership courses gives students the ability to integrate biblical and theological thought into their life and work. Additionally, this program is designed for those who are interested in pursuing a graduate degree. Upon successful completion of the Bachelor of Arts in Theological Studies degree, students will demonstrate the ability to integrate biblical and theological thought into their life and ministry or marketplace context.
