SUBJECT: General Plan Advisory Committee Role, Bylaws and Procedures, and Structure
DATE: July 25, 2017

This memo provides an overview and summary of the roles and responsibilities of the GPAC, and a summary of the format and structure of GPAC meetings. All GPAC members are encouraged to read this memo prior to the first GPAC meeting on August 7th. The information contained in this memo will be reviewed and discussed during the first GPAC meeting.

WHAT IS A GENERAL PLAN?

State law requires every city and county in California to prepare and maintain a planning document called a general plan. A general plan is a “constitution” or “blueprint” for the future physical development of a county or city. All future planning decisions and project approvals must be consistent with the general plan, including, but not limited to: specific plans, subdivisions, public works projects, and zoning decisions.

A general plan has four defining features:

- General. As the name implies, a general plan provides general guidance for future land use, transportation, infrastructure, environmental, and resource decisions.

- Comprehensive. A general plan covers a wide range of social, economic, infrastructure, and natural resource issues. The Manteca General Plan Update will include goals, policies and implementation programs (actions) to address: land use, circulation, housing, conservation, open space, safety, noise, economic development, community design, air quality, and public facilities and services.

- Long-Range. A general plan provides guidance on achieving a long-range vision of the future for a city or county. To reach this envisioned future, the general plan includes goals, policies, and implementation programs that address both near-term and long-term needs. The City of Manteca General Plan Update will look ahead approximately 20 years, to the year 2040.

- Integrated and Coherent. The goals, policies, and implementation programs in a general plan must present a comprehensive, unified program for development and resource conservation. A general plan uses a consistent set of assumptions and projections to assess future demands for housing, employment, public services, and infrastructure. A general plan has a coherent set of policies and implementation programs that enables citizens to understand the vision of the general plan, and enables landowners, businesses, and industry to be more certain about how future planning decisions will be made and implemented.

WHAT IS A GPAC?

The General Plan Advisory Committee (GPAC) is an ad hoc committee established by the Manteca City Council for purposes of the General Plan update. The GPAC will serve as one of the primary channels for the community to make recommendations to the City Council on the updated Manteca General Plan.

The purpose of the GPAC is to provide recommendations to City staff and to the consultant team regarding strategic milestones in the process (Vision, Land Use Plan, Issues and Opportunities, etc.). Another crucial function of the GPAC is to assist in the formation of City goals. What do people say they want in their city? How can this be translated into a set of compatible, consistent, long and short-range City goals?

Through its recommendations the GPAC can help make these goals a part of the decision-making process, recognizing that the determination of what items are included in the General Plan ultimately rests with City Council.

Participation by members appointed to the GPAC is temporary; the roles and responsibilities of its members will terminate with City Council adoption of the General Plan, which is anticipated to occur in approximately two years.

PARTICIPATION IN THE GENERAL PLAN ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Selection as a member of the Manteca General Plan Advisory Committee provides an opportunity to serve the City at an important role as the City continues to shape its future. The following is a summary of important considerations to keep in mind as you undertake your commitment to the City:

Representing the GPAC:

Individual GPAC members must be careful not to represent their own views or recommendations as those of the body unless the majority has officially voted on the issue.

Maintaining Community-wide Perspective:

Although GPAC members may be selected in part on the basis of representing clearly defined groups or neighborhoods, in order to assume that all interests are voiced and considered, each member should represent the overall public and not that of an exclusive group or interest.

Keeping the Lines of Communication Open:

The GPAC members will serve as liaisons between the City and the general public in helping to educate and receive input from the community. Therefore, each member must serve as a communication link between the community and the City, explaining City programs and recommendations, as well as providing a channel for citizen expression. To properly represent the community, members must be accessible to the public so they can receive input as to the sentiment and opinions of their fellow residents.

Be Conscious of your Relationship to the City Council, City Staff, and the Consultant Team:

Good relations with the City Council, City staff, and the consultant team are necessary for the successful operation of any Committee. It is important that each member respect the authority of those who, in the end, will be charged with the final responsibility for action taken by the City. To facilitate effective communication, your actions as a member should be done with the approval of the body. In contacting City personnel or the consultant team on business matters, the proper channel is through the staff liaison appointed to your advisory group (Mark Meissner, the City’s Planning Manager).
Establishing a Good Relationship with Other Members:

On many occasions, the success or failure of a GPAC will depend upon the degree of cooperation among the individual members. In order to build a consensus around common goals and objectives, members will often first have to reconcile contradictory viewpoints and show a willingness to objectively consider the issues.

Another way of developing this cooperation is for each member to do their part to ensure that meetings proceed in an orderly manner. The Chairperson is primarily responsible for seeing that meetings are conducted in an expeditious and thorough fashion, and the consultant team will directly assist in facilitating the meetings. However, each member can help by becoming familiar with the basic rules of parliamentary procedure and by adequately preparing for meetings.

Other Important Points to Consider:

GPAC participants should always show respect for other individuals’ viewpoints and shall allow other members adequate time to present their views before making comments. It is essential to be open and honest at all times, welcome new members and see that they become acquainted with their duties. Be aware that, in the public’s eye, GPAC members represent the City they serve. Comments and actions of the GPAC, therefore, should express sensitivity to the diverse viewpoints held within the City.

OFFICIAL CHARGE OF THE GPAC

Ensure City staff and the consultant team is aware of and understands community concerns, values and expectations.

- Assist City staff and the consultant team in identifying critical issues that should be addressed in the planning process.
- Identify areas of existing or potential conflicts and find ways to constructively resolve them.
- Capitalize on the creative ideas and insights within the Manteca community for input into the General Plan.
- Keep community organizations and interested citizens informed about the status of the planning process.
- Provide recommendations to the Planning Commission and City Council supporting the General Plan.
BYLAWS

The attached bylaws describe the purpose, size and composition, term, attendance requirements, meeting requirements of the GPAC and identify the roles of the GPAC members.

KEY INFORMATION THAT GPAC MEMBERS SHOULD BE AWARE OF

- A total of 12 meetings are planned with the GPAC.
- Each meeting may run three or more hours in length.
- Reading materials will be assigned prior to each meeting, and members should expect approximately 50 or more pages of materials to read prior to each meeting. It is imperative that all members come to each meeting having read and thought about the materials.
- Reading materials will generally include:
  - Select portions of the Existing Conditions Report
  - Select portions of the Issues and Opportunities Report
  - Existing General Plan Elements
  - Memos and materials prepared by the consultant team
  - Draft General Plan policy sets prepared by the consultant team
- Reading materials will be provided to GPAC members approximately 7 days prior to each meeting.
- It will be expected that all GPAC members attend all GPAC meetings.
- Meetings will generally be held once a month, but may occur more or less frequently, depending on the project schedule.
- The GPAC members will elect a Chair.
- The consultant team will serve as meeting facilitators for each meeting. This role will include:
  - Preparing all meeting materials and meeting summary notes.
  - Facilitation of discussions during each meeting, including answering questions, providing additional information, and explaining possible approaches to addressing key topics in the General Plan.
  - Preparing all technical reports and General Plan policy documents.

Role of the GPAC:

- Assist the General Plan Update team in the identification of key issues and topics to address in the General Plan, and assist in developing a range of solutions and approaches to address these key topics.
At Each GPAC meeting, members will identify the community-at-large during the General Plan Update. This includes providing input and guidance that each member feels will best serve Manteca as a whole over the next 20 years, and serving as an ‘ambassador’ to the community through sharing information about the General Plan Update and gathering input from residents, neighbors, businesses, community groups, and community organizations.

- Review draft materials (draft policy sets) prepared by the consultant team to ensure that the priorities of the community are being addressed in the General Plan Update.

- In general, the GPAC will be presented with either new topics to discuss at each meeting or a policy set to review for topics discussed at previous meetings. Following 2-3 meetings of new topic discussions, the consultant team will prepare draft policy sets addressing the previously discussed topics, and bring these policy sets to the GPAC for review, refinement, and discussion. This process will be repeated 2-3 times during the GPAC’s time together.

- The result of the GPAC’s time together will be a Draft General Plan that is prepared and submitted to the Planning Commission and City Council for further review, input, and refinement. The City Council will have the final word regarding the content of the General Plan Update.

Role of the public during GPAC meetings:

- Members of the public are invited and encouraged to attend any and all GPAC meetings.

- Structured opportunities for public input and comment will be provided at each meeting. However, the public will not be permitted to participate in open discussions with the GPAC members during meetings. In order for the GPAC to operate effectively, each member must be able to speak freely and openly with other members, free from interruptions and questions from the public.

- Members of the public wishing to speak at a GPAC meeting will be asked to identify themselves so that the Chairperson can determine and enforce the appropriate time-limit per speaker in order to stay within the allotted public comment period.

GPAC Input

Each GPAC memo will identify the specific topic to be addressed at the upcoming meeting and will identify materials to be reviewed and issues to be considered prior to the meeting.

At its first meeting, the GPAC will not discuss any General Plan topics in detail. Each GPAC member will be asked to identify their priorities for the General Plan Update.
