

HUMAN SERVICES

Become a RM365 Advantage Safety Star!

- Lower your organization’s probability of work-related injuries while promoting a safety culture.
- Give your organization a competitive advantage in the insurance marketplace.
- Better understand the major hazards that face your organization and drive insurance premiums.
- Lower the organization’s overall insurance cost.

Who should participate in this program?

The RM365 Advantage Safety Star in Human Services program is designed for administrators, directors of human resources, facilities/operations managers, and safety committee members.

How do you become a RM365 Advantage Safety Star?

To earn the RM365 Advantage Safety Star in Human Services, complete the required Incident Investigation online module (2 credits) plus at least 10 credits from approved modules. The modules can be completed 100% online over six months.

The certification is valid for two years. Participants must complete at least an additional 2 credits every 12 months to maintain the certification.

Upon completion of the modules, the participant will be recognized by Rancho Mesa as a RM365 Advantage Safety Star team member and featured on the Safety Star webpage.
