Los Trastornos del Espectro de Autismo de la A a la Z
 By Barbara T. Doyle and Emily Doyle Iland

Translated by one of the authors from the successful book, Autism Spectrum Disorders From A to Z this is the most extensively detailed book in Spanish on the subject. It presents the combined perspective of two sisters with 50 years of experience between them, one the mother of a young man with an Autism Spectrum Disorder and educational advocate, the other a professional in special education for more than 32 years.

This book contains all the information and resources that parents need to know to help their children. It offers many practical strategies and ideas about how parents and professionals can collaborate to achieve the most successful life possible for a person with ASD. With more than 500 pages, important themes are explained in language that is easy to understand.
