Who the heck is Kimmortal?

Kimmortal blends Lauryn-Hill-like soul and rap conscious vocals, with her authentic, quirky and powerful stage presence. She often offers a fresh set on every new stage with her electronic hip hop vibes or her ukulele.

HIGH RES PHOTOS:

"a capable rapper, releasing words with power on a level somewhere between the rawness of an artist like Angel Haze and her own impassioned spoken word".

- Disorder Magazine

"..it is plain to see the immense talent and unfathomable potential Kimmortal has the responsibility of wielding. Her flow, her storytelling, her animations, her point of view and that unmistakable voice culminates into, what I feel, can be one of the most relevant artists to come out of the country."

- Romeo Candido, Senior Producer at CBC/Radio-Canada

Short BIO:

Kimmortal is an emcee, singer-songwriter, and visual artist of Filipina descent. Born in Vancouver and raised in Surrey, Kimmortal is known as a powerful performer with her soulful voice and lyricism that comes from the heart. Her debut album, "Sincerity" (2014), reflects Kimmortal's indie rock and soul influences. Kimmortal has exhibited her talent at various festivals including Canadian Music Week (Toronto), Kultura Filipino Arts Festival (Toronto), New West Pride Festival, and Queer Women of Colour Film Festival (San Francisco). In 2014, she founded the festival "She" an annual International Women's Day event spotlighting women of colour in music and the art of word. She has been featured on the CBC ("Exhibitionists"), and has shared stages with Gabriel Teodros, Khingz, Lal, JB the First Lady, and Juno nominated rapper, Shad K. Kimmortal is currently working on producing beats and writing raps for her second album with high hopes to touch the hearts of many.
