

2017 OWL OUTSTANDING WOMAN LEADER AWARD

We are now accepting nominations for the OWL Outstanding Woman Leader of the Year Award. In keeping with OWL's original purpose of bringing together the public and private sectors, we would like to present awardees in both the public and private sector. Criteria to be honored include excellent leadership in one's profession, in community service, and as a role model for other women. The OWL Woman of the Year should be an OWL member in good standing for the calendar year in which the award is given.

OWL Mission Statement

The mission of OWL is to develop a network of contacts among women in decision-making positions to promote effectiveness on the job and professional advancement. The goals and objectives of OWL shall be to establish a network of contacts between the public and private sectors; to establish a professional and interpersonal support system for women professionals; to offer informational opportunities for women in management; to provide career-related ideas and information; and to share job and career advancement opportunities.
