

Anchorlight Studio Application

Applications for studio space at Anchorlight are now being accepted from skilled and driven artists, designers, and craftspeople looking to further their professional careers through a dedicated studio practice. Studios at Anchorlight will be awarded based on merit by an independent panel. The panel consists of two current Anchorlight resident artists, one Anchorlight staff member, and two members of the local arts community. Applications are reviewed regularly and ranked in order of preference. Applicants that are not immediately accepted are placed on a waitlist. Placement on the waitlist does not guarantee residency. Anchorlight is looking for makers who:

- Display obvious talent and individual vision
- Are creating original work both in concept and production
- Are generous, industrious, and creative thinkers
- Demonstrate an ability to work and get along with a variety of other individuals in a semi-private studio environment
- Demonstrate a commitment to their practice through an existing body of work
- Are interested in participating in open studio and public events

Tenant Selection Criteria

- Merit: Does this person's work meet the standard of quality Anchorlight strives for?
- Space: Will this person's practice work with the space Anchorlight has available?
- Discipline: Anchorlight seeks to represent a variety of artistic disciplines.
- Need: Does this person already have a place to work?
- Presence: Will this person use the space regularly? Will they participate in open studios and other public events?

Important Information

- Filling out an application does not guarantee residency
- Applications will not be considered until all materials have been received
- Anchorlight studios are work only, we do not provide live-work spaces
- A security deposit plus one month's rent are due at lease signing
- All tenants must hold a general liability policy showing Anchorlight as a loss payee
- Most studios do not have windows. The building is equipped with skylights. Studios either have LED strip lights or fluorescent shop lights with natural daylight bulbs.

Other Application Materials

To be submitted in a single PDF document along with this form via email to studios@anchorlightraleigh.com. If you are applying with the intent of sharing a studio with another artist both parties must be represented in this application.

Incomplete applications will not be considered.

- An artist statement including how you will contribute to and benefit from a studio at Anchorlight
- 5-7 images of current work
