For the past 10 years, we have helped young women and girls survive the death of their mothers. We’ve helped them realize that they are not alone. We’ve brought together countless women and girls from around the globe to meet with, be mentored by, and become friends and family with other women and girls who have had the same experience of losing a mother. We’ve made it possible for these women and girls to know that they are not alone and will survive.

We’ve had so many people ask us - why don’t you offer programs for boys who have lost a father, or a mother? Girls who have lost a dad? Children of any gender who have lost a parent? We hear you; we hear that crying need.

And so, empowerHER® is embarking upon an extraordinary, monumental effort. We are proud to announce our expansion project to now serve boys, girls + non binary children and young adults who have experienced the loss of their mother or father.

Today, our EVENTS and MENTOR PROGRAM are offered both in-person and virtually for girls + young women up through age 24. Beginning in January 2023, enrollment will open for all children and young adults who have experienced the loss of a parent.

“I was nine years old when my mother Kit died of breast cancer and I grew up desperate to meet another girl just like me. All I ever wanted to do was take girls away on Mother’s Day to show them they weren’t alone in their grief. Today, we get to do just that and more”

Founder + Ceo, Cara Belvin

3 GRIEF-CARE PROTECTIVE FACTORS essential for healthy development include: Caring Community, Positive Role Models, and Peer Support. Loss during childhood often results in profound stress and adversity and without appropriate support, the loss may derail a young girl’s development. Access to these 3 grief-care protective factors is essential.
empowerHER® PARTNERS are transformational for our young organization. PARTNERS help build our capacity and improve infrastructure to support our high-growth. And, the impact is immeasurable. To expand both the reach and breadth of our offerings simultaneously requires significant new resources. That’s why your gift today is so important. More important than ever.
