AFPC is a coalition of Alaskans who want to improve Alaska’s food system.

Our statewide volunteer board of directors represents:

» Farmers  » Food Businesses  » Government Agencies  » Subsistence Users
» Fishermen  » Schools  » Non-Profits  » Food Consumers of Alaska

AFPC is dedicated to making change so our food system works better for all Alaskans.

How we do it:

Connect: Engage with Alaskans to get input to strengthen our food system, and to connect them with each other to learn and collaborate.

Advocate: Develop recommendations and share them with policy makers at the local, state, federal, and tribal level.

Inform: Share information, resources, opportunities and risks with all food stakeholders (everyone who eats!)

IN ALASKA:
Subsistence and personal use harvests are worth $900 million annually.

1 in 5 Alaskan kids face chronic hunger.

Physical inactivity & unhealthy eating contribute to overweight • obesity • chronic diseases (including some cancers, cardiovascular disease, & diabetes)

95% of our food is imported.

Exporting $2B in food dollars/year.
