

The Mississippi River, Her Time is Now

Jim Strickland
Mayor, Memphis, TN
MRCTI Co-Chair

Errick Simmons
Mayor, Greenville, MS
MRCTI Co-Chair

Sessions

All times are central

March 8: Corps Matinee Discussion
3:00pm to 4:30pm

March 9: First Session 10am to 12
Second Session 1pm to 4

March 10: Press Conference 10am
Closing 10:30am to 12

The MRCTI 10th Anniversary Celebration Begins:

Unprecedented Resources are Coming to the Mississippi River Corridor. Is Your Organization Ready?

Over $64 billion in new federal funding will be flowing into the ten-state Mississippi River Corridor over the next five years. Cities will need to compete at the county, state, and federal levels to secure much of the new capital available. Does your city have the capacity to pursue critical infrastructure funding through 2027? Has your city assessed what will be available and determined the best accounts to track? MRCTI can help.

MRCTI Cities are Uniting to Secure Vital Infrastructure Funding

The MRCTI Capitol Meeting will feature the unveiling of a newly developed Infrastructure Facility that will give our cities an exclusive competitive edge in winning vital but highly competitive Jobs Act funding.

We hope you can join us virtually as we host the following crucial discussions from Washington, DC:

- ◆ U.S. Army Corps of Engineers spending plan for several billion dollars of new funding ;
- ◆ MRCTI will unveil a new partnership to help our cities secure new infrastructure funding;
- ◆ MRCTI will detail the results of a nutrient load cost survey conducted by Earth Economics;
- ◆ MRCTI will announce the opening of a new grant opportunity with partners for all types of infrastructure;
- ◆ MRCTI will unveil our 2022 Federal Policy Platform

Mississippi River Cities & Towns Initiative
Capitol Meeting March 8-10, 2022, Washington

We will open with the return of our matinee discussion with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers the afternoon of March 8; followed by a full day and special congressional event on March 9; concluding with a press conference and closing session on March 10. Speakers include executive staff from the Corps, White House, FEMA, and other agencies as well as Congressional Leadership.

See you March 8 !

Title Partner

Arnold & Porter