Holy Hikes - Saturday, October 14 at Hemlock Cliffs in Crawford County

Hemlock Cliffs is a valley of special beauty in the Hoosier National Forest. For those who are carpooling – meet at St. Paul's at 9:00 am. If you are going straight to Hemlock Cliffs, be at the trail head at 9:45. We encourage hikers to 1) pack a lunch and stay for a picnic following the hike, and 2) to contact Rhonda Wolfe at barckhoffwolfe1@gmail.com or 502-939-3133 to RSVP, and let her know if you're interested in carpooling. Even if you don't carpool, please RSVP. It's a long way to drive is no one comes!

Directions: From I-64, take exit 86, and head north along IN-237 (aka Main Street). After just a few miles, turn left onto Union Chapel Road and drive 2.6 miles. Continue along County Road 8 (Union Chapel, but changes to Hatfield Road as it veers to the right). Continue along Hatfield Road until you reach the National Forest Service Road to the Hemlock Cliffs. The signage along the way is great, so just keep looking for "Hemlock Cliffs". The NFS road is narrow and leads to a parking area.
