In the past couple of months, we have had several great events. The Community Tap Barbeque was a huge success. Perfect weather, great food, craft beer and fellowship contributed to a great event. The luncheon at Tommy's Ham House was also a hit. Thanks to Justice Kittredge, Bill Bannister and John Mauldin for sharing their unique experiences with us. The Greenville Bar is so fortunate to have such esteemed members willing to give their time.

Congratulations to Jo Hackl on receiving this year's Tommy Thomason award. Jo graciously exhibits the qualities, values and character recognized in this award. We look forward to celebrating with her at our luncheon on Friday, November 18. If you haven't already made your reservations, please contact Melinda. In addition to the Tommy Thomason Award Luncheon, we have a couple of other important events coming up.

One event not to miss this holiday season is our annual Christmas Party, which will be December 13 at the Poinsett Club. Because the bar is in healthy financial shape, we are able to heavily subsidize our social events. For example the Christmas Party actual cost is over $100 per person but we charge only $30! The menu, spirits and gifts will be exceptional as always, thank you Dave Edwards. Get your reservations in early to take advantage of this benefit.

One of the most meaningful events of the year in the Greenville Bar is the Memorial Service where we remember our members who have passed on. Again this year, the service will be at the Hughes Branch of the Greenville Library on December 8th at 4:00 p.m. We will be remembering Brantley Phillips, Judge Don Phillips, Rob Hoskins, Larry Estridge, Bill Walsh, Gretchen Gleason

Ron McKinney and John Johnston. I always leave this service having learned something new and interesting about our colleagues and proud to be a member of the bar.

Mark your calendar for February 3, 2017– this is the date of our “Year-End” CLE.

What an honor it is to serve as your Bar President. The Executive Committee continues to work hard on several projects. Please contact me if you have any questions about programs, social events or ideas on how to make the Bar more responsive to your needs.

Thank you for your participation in the Greenville Bar and I look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events.

ganizations. He has diverse experience in term loan and mezzanine financings, both on the borrower's and lender's side, connected with mergers, acquisitions, and refinancing transactions. Before joining Smith Moore Leatherwood, Mr. Clark practiced as a corporate associate with a large New York law firm. He received his law degree from Duke University School of Law and completed his undergraduate studies at Davidson College.

The Upstate Mediation Center (UMC) and the Greenville Police Department are launching a new Community – Police Mediation Program that is designed to provide an alternative forum for resolving certain types of citizen complaints. Through this program, specially-trained professional UMC mediators will guide citizens and police officers through a face-to-face facilitated discussion in a neutral, confidential environment. Participation in the mediation program is voluntary and is offered as an alternative to the Greenville Police Department's formal complaint process. Complaints that are eligible for the program include demeanor complaints (e.g., discourteous or rude behavior); ineffective communication between a complainant and a police officer; and biased-based policing complaints.

Smith Moore Leatherwood's website redesign has been recognized with a 2016 Legal Standard of Excellence WebAward by the Web Marketing Association. This is the third award the firm has received since the launch of its redesigned site in 2015.

Founding shareholder Frank Elmore of Elmore Goldsmith, P.A. was one of five inaugural Class of 2016 Hall of Fame inductees at the Carolinas Associated General Contractors Annual Divisions Conference and Construction Industry Summit held on Hilton Head Island. FAMILY COURT LIAISON COMMITTEE REPORT

October 14, 2016

Attention Attorneys:

1. This is the last Family Court Liaison meeting of the year. A pro-se check list was developed and implemented and is proving successful. A new cell phone policy was implemented as well which is consistent with other policies around the state. Thanks to all who helped make these new changes successful.
2. The push to ensure cases are resolved in a timely manner has been effective. There are no 2015 cases going into 2017.
3. A new docketing system will go into effect soon.
4. There is a shortage of court reporters and the Judges are doing their best to get cases heard in spite of this. The state is testing an electronic court reporting system.
5. The next administrative Judge will be W. Marsh Robertson.

The next Family Court Liaison meeting will be February 10, 2017 at 12:30 p.m. in the Conference Room in the Judge's Hallway. Any attorneys who are unable to attend these meetings but have issues they would like addressed may contact: Christine M. Howard (864-282-8575).
