

SIP: Society for Italian Philosophy

Second Annual International Conference

MARCH 23-25, 2018

ROCHESTER INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Rochester, NY

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS*:

SIMONA FORTI

(Università del Piemonte Orientale)

“Towards an Ethos of Freedom: Rethinking Power and Resistance”

GIANNI VATTIMO

(Università di Torino)

“Is There a Future in/for Hermeneutics ?”

* Free and open to the public

“Rudy” Marasciuolo, I Lampioni Innamorati, Turin, Parco del Valentino

Conference Presenters: Daniel Ambord, Luca Bagetto, Abdullah Basaran, Alexander Bertland, Paolo Bettineschi, Peg Birmingham, Antonio Calcagno, Peter Carravetta, Alessandro Carrera, Gaetano Chiurazzi, Steve DeCaroli, Anna Di Bello, Andrea Di Gesu, Diane Enns, Simone Ghelli, Paolo Missiroli, Osman Nemli, Ariana Ragusa, Elvira Roncalli, Rita Šerpytytė, Constanza Serratore, Fanny Söderbäck, Robert T. Valgenti, Erik Vogt, Andrew Woods, Elia Zaru.

All events will take place in the Max Lowenthal Building on the RIT campus.

For conference program, registration (required to attend the conference), and additional information, please go to: <https://www.societyforitalianphilosophy.org/current-meeting/>

For further queries, please contact Silvia Benso (silvia.benso@rit.edu).

The conference is sponsored by:

College of Liberal Arts, Dean's Office, RIT

Department of Philosophy, RIT

Department of Modern Languages and Cultures, RIT

International and Global Studies Program, RIT

Center for Statesmanship, Law, and Liberty, RIT

Humanities Center, Syracuse University

For additional information, please check SIP's website at:
<https://www.societyforitalianphilosophy.org/>

