Alex Sesentón
Programming Manager

Alex Sesentón is a multi-genre musician originally from New Jersey. She is a keen advocate for cross cultural diplomacy through the arts and has participated in a number of cultural exchange projects including singing with all-female, Serbian group, ROSA, becoming the recipient of a Fulbright study/research grant, and working for Yo-Yo Ma’s Silkroad Ensemble. As a musician, Alex is a firm believer in genre hopping. She is a trained opera singer and also performs with her Americana band, Fortunate Daughter, in which she not only sings, but also plays the guitar, piano, and banjo. Alex’s strange and wonderful life journey has landed her at Wellfleet Preservation Hall where she is so excited to build more community music programming and celebrate all the outer Cape has to offer!
