

Research Hive, LLC Online Data Privacy Policy

- (1) Identify the categories of personally identifiable information that the operator collects through the Web site or online service about individual consumers who use or visit its commercial Web site or online service and the categories of third-party persons or entities with whom the operator may share that personally identifiable information.
 - a. Currently Research Hive, LLC collects only information provided by the visitor to the website www.researchhive.com
 - b. This information includes: Name, Company Name, Phone Number, Email Address, Phone Number, and is collected only when the user submits it.
 - c. This information is never shared with any third party for any reason, unless and until a formal agreement is signed between the visitor to purchase services provided by Research Hive, LLC. If purchasing services, this information is only shared with sub-contractors of Research Hive, LLC for the purposes of providing the services only. Research Hive, LLC maintains contracts with all Sub-Contractors limiting their use and access to all personally identifiable information.
 - d. When visitors purchase access to the mobile and web applications provided by Research Hive, LLC, they agree to Terms and Conditions, End User License Agreement, and a Business Associates Agreement, all of which govern and delineate the data contained within the applications. These Agreements are provided on a case-by-case basis to every customer.
- (2) If the operator maintains a process for an individual consumer who uses or visits its commercial Web site or online service to review and request changes to any of his or her personally identifiable information that is collected through the Web site or online service, provide a description of that process.
 - a. Research Hive, LLC collects minimal information, as described above, thus there is no current process in place for consumers to modify the information they provide, as only information provided by them initially is collected. There should be no reason to modify it.
- (3) Describe the process by which the operator notifies consumers who use or visit its commercial Web site or online service of material changes to the operator's privacy policy for that Web site or online service.
 - a. If changes to this policy occur, no user who has submitted their information prior to the change will be affected unless notified by email or phone call. New visitors after the change has been made will be held to the new policy that is published and available publicly.
