Eligibility Paths

NCIDQ Examination Eligibility Paths

Specific education and work experience requirements exist to be eligible to sit for the NCIDQ Examination.

Education...
- Official education transcripts must include a minimum of 60 semester or 90 quarter credit hours of post-secondary interior design coursework that encompasses a certificate, degree, or diploma from an accredited institution, for an application to be reviewed.

Interior Design
- Bachelor or Master Degree
  - CIDQ or Non-CIDQ
  - + Interior Design Degree

Architecture
- Bachelor or Master Degree
  - NAAB or CAAB
  - Non-NAAB or Non-CAAB

Experience...
- Hours must be earned and affirmed by a Direct Supervisor and/or Sponsor
  - Up to 1,760 hours of interior design work experience, earned prior to graduation, may be included in overall work experience total.

- 3,520 Work Hours (2 Years full time)
- 5,280 Work Hours (3 years full time)
- 7,040 Work Hours (4 years full time)

Meeting CIDQ’s education and work experience requirements does not guarantee that a candidate will meet their jurisdiction’s requirements to be a licensed/registered/certified interior designer. Individuals are reminded to check with their jurisdiction regarding those specific requirements.
Work Experience Requirements

• New Rules:

• All individuals, regardless of education, may earn up to 1,760 interior design work experience hours pre-graduation

• All interior design work experience hours must now be signed off on by either a direct supervisor and/or sponsor
Work Experience Requirements

• Direct Supervisor and/or Sponsor must meet at least one of the following three criteria:

  • NCIDQ Certified Interior Designer

  • State/Provincial Licensed/Registered/Certified Interior Designer in the US or Canada

  • State/Provincial Licensed/Registered Architect in the US or Canada who provides interior design services

Sample Preliminary Score Report

Interior Design Fundamentals Exam

Congratulations! A preliminary analysis of your test results show that you successfully achieved the passing standard for the IDFX Examination. After the final quality control review of all scores has been performed, notification of the posting of your official examination results report, within your secure MyNCIDQ account, will be sent to you via email approximately 6 weeks after the close of the current exam window.

Your score is reported as a scaled score. The passing standard is 500. A diagnostic analysis of your performance in each domain/content area is shown below.

- Programming and Site Analysis
- Human Behavior and the Designed Environment
- Building Systems and Construction
- Furniture, Finishes, Equipment, and Lighting
- Construction Drawings and Specifications
- Technical Drawing Conventions
- Design Communication

The NCIDQ Examination is comprised of three sections: 1) Interior Design Fundamentals Exam (IDFX), 2) Interior Design Professional Exam (IDPX), and 3) Practicum (PRAC). Candidates must pass all three sections of the exam in order to satisfy the NCIDQ Examination requirements and become NCIDQ Certified. For more information, visit www.cidq.org.
