SAN FRANCISCO DECORATOR SHOWCASE PREPARES TO OPEN ON MARINA BOULEVARD

First-Ever Showcase in Marina District Transformed by Top Northern California Interior and Landscape Designers

Showcase open from April 28 – May 28

The San Francisco Decorator Showcase is ready to open its doors for the first-ever showcase event in San Francisco's Marina District. The 2018 Showcase will be held at 465 Marina Boulevard from April 28 – May 28, 2018. Located across the street from the Marina Green with uninterrupted views of the San Francisco Bay, the 1930 home is the canvas for Northern California's top interior and landscape designers who have transformed the home into the West Coast's premier design event.

Originally built by architect George McCrea, the 2018 Showcase home is the perfect setting for Showcase visitors and evening parties with large picture windows offering spectacular views of the Bay, Golden Gate Bridge, Alcatraz and Marina Green. The sophisticated three-level home boasts four bedrooms, three and one-half baths, a sunken living room, formal dining room and a media room. The gourmet kitchen opens to a spacious family room, which overlooks the tranquil garden. A light-filled center atrium is perfect for mingling and entertaining. The two home office/reading rooms and a rosé lounge complete the beautiful Marina property.

From the grand entryway to the guest closet to the courtyard, visitors to the 2018 Showcase will be able to peruse 26 unique rooms and spaces. Spaces and designers include:

BACKGROUND:

For the past 40 years, the annual San Francisco Decorator Showcase has benefited San Francisco University High School's financial aid program, raising nearly $16 million and benefiting hundreds of students. Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors, the participation of hundreds of accomplished designers, the school's trustees, parents, faculty, alumni, students, friends, and the thousands of Showcase visitors each year, the San Francisco Decorator Showcase allows San Francisco University High School to offer financial aid to its students. It is through the community's continued support that quality education has been made available over the past three decades to hundreds of deserving Bay Area students.
