

Steps to Turning Magical Discouragement Around

Ask Yourself

Can I do another kind of spell for this outcome?

Am I doing the necessary work on the material level to make my spell manifest?

Is my spell or intention too focused or is it not focused enough?

Open the Flow

Say "A closed door is as valuable as an open door" before starting your intention or spell

Create more open-ended intentions

Add "...or something better" to your intentions and petitions

Keep the Energy Flowing

Repeat affirmations such as

"Everything's going to be okay"

"I know that things will work out alright"

"Okay - let's see where this adventure takes me" "Good news, bad news, who can say?"
