

Between you and me

An exhibition by Leah Newman

This exhibition engages with the following questions:

How is one aware of their body when viewing a work?

In what ways is the viewer aware of the physical space the work asks them to move through?

How does the work ask them to participate as a viewer?

Are they aware of themselves as a viewer?

How does the artist use their own body when creating a work?

Is the work in response to the artists' identity in their own body?

Is the artist part of the artwork as a performer or an object?

What is the artist trying to convey to the viewer?

Between you and me investigates the relationship between the artist and the viewer, any two people, x and y.

Disclaimer: some of the works in the show are about the physical body and are representative of the artists' own perspectives and interpretations