Unsolicited manuscripts are welcome and authors do not have to be members of THRA.

The editor reserves the right to decline publication, and papers that have been or are about to be published elsewhere will not be considered.

The copyright of papers published in Papers and Proceedings remains with authors. Apart from fair dealing permitted under the provisions of the Copyright Act, requests to reproduce extracts from a paper will be forwarded to the author.

In general, the text of papers should not exceed 10,000 words. An author proposing to write a longer paper should discuss this with the Editor before submitting. Shorter papers are welcome. When submitting a paper, please supply your full contact details, including an email address and a phone number.

Illustrations are very welcome, but authors will need to supply photographs and other graphics as separate production-quality electronic files (jpegs or tiffs scanned at 300 dpi and at A4 in size). Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce illustrations where this is required, and will need to supply documentation. The inclusion of specific illustrations will be at the discretion of the editor.

Papers should be sent to the editor as Microsoft Word documents on disk, accompanied by a double-spaced typescript in hard copy. Images for inclusion as illustrations should be copied on to the disk as separate jpg or tiff files.

The copy of the paper and the disk should be posted to: The Editor, THRA P&P, PO Box 441, Sandy Bay 7006 TAS

Papers can be submitted by email to editor@thra.org.au. However, any images to be included in the paper will need to be submitted on disk and posted to the editor.

Contributions will be acknowledged soon after they are received. If the editor fails in this, a reminder will be welcomed.

Authors receive a copy of their edited paper to review before the text is finalised and will also be asked to proofread their paper before it is forwarded to the printers. In addition, a proof copy from the printers is sent to each author for checking before it is authorised for printing.

An author is sent three complimentary copies of the edition of Papers and Proceedings in which his or her paper appears.
