

ON THE PHYSICAL NATURE OF GRAVITATIONAL WAVES

by

H. BONDI.

Summary.

The need for non-gravitational forces to act as source function for the hyperbolic field equations is discussed. The relation of the conservation laws to the question of whether gravitational waves actually radiate energy is examined in detail and a suitable ideal experiment is proposed.

---