

The NNBA will NOT have a "Last Chance CLE" this year:

Sutin, Thayer & Browne law firm presents its annual Navajo Law Seminar on Friday, December 1, 2017, at the Sheraton Uptown in Albuquerque. The seminar offers 6 Navajo General Law hours and 2 Navajo Law Ethics hours, all applicable to the Navajo Nation Bar (accredited November 15) and the State Bar of New Mexico (accredited October 15). After October 1, the registration fee is $195.

Program presentations and other content will be available Monday, November 27, on this website. Please download content to your device or print out before the CLE so that we do not crash the servers on the day of the CLE.

Send registration forms and payment to Kimberly Manning at Sutin, Thayer & Browne, PO Box 1945, Albuquerque, NM 87103, or to knm@sutinfirm.com. Please include an email address where we may send receipts. Mailed checks must be received in Sutin's office by November 29.
